

Satellite radio should be allowed to bring all types of broadcasts to the public at large. In particular, the FCC should allow local weather and traffic reports.

The FCC, by allowing Clear Channel to purchase the majority of the radio stations in San Diego County has cut down on competition. Satellite radio, helps the public by providing an alternative to Clear Channel in San Diego.